

Designer Giuseppe Bavuso, year 2016

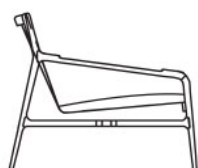

The Margot lounge chair, on the other hand, invites you to experience total comfort thanks to the feather padding of its seat, available in either leather or fabric, satisfying interior design requirements in both the domestic and contract sphere. Margot combines the warmth of wood - making up the 'body' of the chair - with a steel structure that is elegantly hidden by a leather cover, complete with a polyurethane rubber insert.

In addition to the armchair, Margot is also available as an ottoman.
