

BLUES Chair

Designer: Giuseppe Viganò

Year: 2022

DESCRIPTION:

The chair of the Blues collection looks like a real sculptural object: the sinuous line unites the backrest and the armrest in a single gesture. The backrest embraces and wraps the seat, while the legs rush towards that gesture, giving uniqueness and lightness to the whole. Here, too, the combination of wood and metal, typical of the collection, is evident. He manages to interpret the space by defining the style of a very trendy area of the house. The Blues chair is available in different finishes as per sample card.
