

ECHO Desk

Designer: Giuseppe Viganò

Year: 2024

DESCRIPTION:

The Echo desk gives the space a timeless elegance. The rounded corners split in two: the walnut wood top with leather pad is characterized by these roundnesses which, near the corner, delicately fade, simulating two distinct surfaces inside the desk. This design offers a solid foundation for carrying out daily tasks and, at the same time, an excellent container, with leather-lined drawers, for documents and office materials, optimizing space and organization to facilitate professional productivity
