

KYMA Rectangular table

Designer: Matteo Nunziati

Year: 2025

DESCRIPTION:

The solid and imposing canaletto walnut structure dialogues with the perfection of the top, available in marble or walnut veneer. The metal details, worked with advanced painting techniques, enhance the contrast between material and light, giving the whole a sophisticated essentiality. The Kyma table embodies the stylistic evolution of Turri: contemporary design and tradition, the result of aesthetic research and craftsmanship, coexist to leave room for the company's vision, increasingly oriented towards preserving the excellence of Made in Italy.
